Good morning Insp Tovell,

Dave,

As I understand, plans are still getting developed here at OPS.

At this time, as you know, our Intel indicates that the Freedom Convoy would arrive in Ottawa during the weekend of 28-29-30 (likely the 29th) of January.

I'm looping in a few key persons here for you:

Inspector Russell Lucas - Special Events. He is the one overseeing the planning for the Freedom Convoy for our organization.

He would be the one knowing the smallest details around this deployment and may be able to answer your question.

From what I gather in this chain of email, I believe he is the one you want to be in contact with.

I do not know at this time if NCRCC (RCMP - TPOF) will be stood up for this event. In any case, Insp. Lucas will know and should be able to look into getting your folks access to NCRCC for that specific weekend (or beyond) if need be.

The following folks are Operations Commanders for the City and can be reached 24/7 via 613-236-1222 Ext 3030:

If NCRCC is not stood up for this event, the following folks would be the ones welcoming your rep in our Command Centre (the equivalent to your POC)

Inspector Frank D'Aoust – Will be the Primary on duty Day Shift (0600-1600) for the weekend of Jan 28-29 and 30th.

Inspector Jamie Harper – Will be the Primary on duty Afternoon (1600-0300) for the weekend of Jan 28-29 and 30th.

Inspector Isabelle Lemieux – Will be the Secondary (0900-2000) for the weekend of Jan 28-29 and 30th.

Wed and Thurs - Inspector Brian Samuel (afternoon) and myself (Day) will your Primaries if the event was to unfold earlier.

Mon and Tues – Inspector Debbie Palmer (Days) and myself (Afternoons) will be your Primaries if the event was to unfold later.

I hope this help.

Have a great week,

M-A

Thank you Rob and Denis.

If you are standing up an Incident Command, we would be happy to provide an OPP member who can liaise between our ongoing operations and yours as the convoys converge on your area.
